BIOGRAPHIES RECEIVED FROM TWO CANDIDATES

Dan Nelson (Granville) - Dan Nelson has been on the Granville CSD Board of education for 3 years. Dan has retired from Granville Central School after 31 years of teaching math, director for technology and chief information officer. Dan has consulted with a number of schools within the WSWHEBOCES to train and assist districts in their data reporting procedures. He was an adjunct at SUNY Plattsburgh teaching in the graduate teacher and leadership education programs. He is currently a fall adjunct at SUNY Adirondack teaching Math and Computer science. He is also co-owner of a real estate investment corporation and a co-owner of a seasonal restaurant.

Janine Thomas (Hartford) -I am a third term member and vice-president of the Hartford Central School Board of Education as well as being a retired teacher with 33 years of service. I am an artist and have a studio in Hartford. "Let each become all he is capable of being" has been a cornerstone of New York State education philosophy. To me, this phrase encapsulates the goals of our BOCES system. My experience on the BOCES board of education has given me the opportunity to work with incredibly intelligent people. The entire staff and board are dedicated to achieving superior results in every child in every program. Your support will allow me to continue to be part of this worthy educational endeavor.
